

I urge you to vote against FCC proposal that would further deregulate the public airwaves. We already have too much deregulation to ensure that all points of view are available to readers, listeners and viewers. These views are needed for the public to make informed decisions. Please vote no!